

10 VENUES.
1 TEAM.
ENDLESS POSSIBILITIES.

CREOLE  CUISINE

SPECIAL EVENT VENUES

504-586-1155

SALES@CREOLECUISINE.COM

CREOLECUISINESPECIALEVENTS.COM

The historic properties of Creole Cuisine Special Events and Catering offer elegant venues amid the excitement of "Old World" New Orleans. From intimate party rooms to dynamic spaces with balcony views, and majestic courtyards. Creole Cuisine offers the largest collection of unique venue spaces in New Orleans for events of all sizes. Make Creole Cuisine your ultimate call for all of your offsite convention events.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

French Quarter Balcony locations

Bourbon Vieux.....	3
Pier 424.....	4
The Rex Room.....	5

French Quarter Locations

Broussard's Restaurant.....	7 & 8
Bombay Club.....	9
Kingfish Restaurant.....	10

Riverfront Locations

Marche`.....	11
--------------	----

Warehouse District /Convention Center Destinations

Ernst Café.....	12
Tomas Gallery Venue.....	13
Tommy's Restaurant & Lofts.....	14

BOURBON VIEUX

MEETINGS ~ RECEPTIONS ~ PRIVATE PARTIES

120 Seated / 350 Reception

The Bourbon Vieux was designed to showcase the venue's French Quarter historical ambience. An exposed brick wall, hand painted gold leaf details, dramatic damask foyer and stunning chandeliers and sconces are just some of the touches that make Bourbon Vieux the best Bourbon Street event space – offering Elegance with a Vieux!

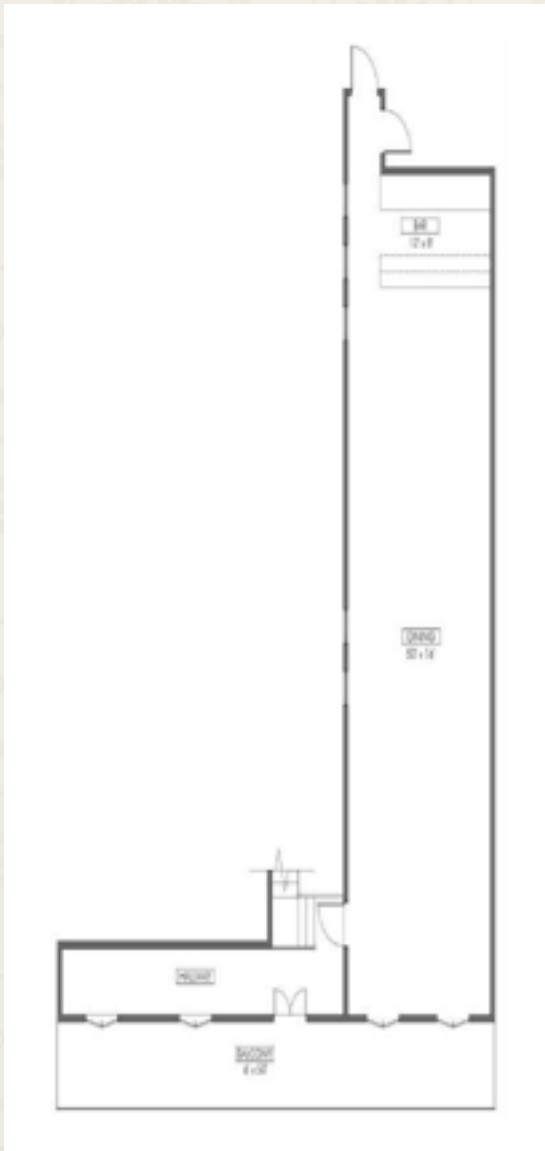

A variety of table sizes, Chiavari chairs, hi-boy barstools and black linens are always included with our venue. Our staff will ensure your event is customized to meet your needs and expectations – from creating a custom menu to event enhancements such as décor, beads or live entertainment – we are here to ensure the planning process is easy for our clients, especially those planning from outside of the Big Easy.

PIER 424 SEAFOOD MARKET

90 Reception

The Cypress Room at Pier 424 is the perfect spot for a unique destination in the heart of Bourbon Street offering guests the true New Orleans reception experience with exposed brick walls, gas lanterns and a covered gallery balcony. Reception style (limited seating) groups with a maximum of 90.

65 Reception

Located in the Heart of the French Quarter, this majestic parlor inspired venue offers guests an escape from the Bourbon Street craziness and a glimpse into royalty. Named after the “King of Carnival” himself, The Rex Room embodies the colorful landscape that is New Orleans.

Broussard's

RESTAURANT & COURTYARD

Seated Buyout 225
Reception Style Buyout 350
with Hermann-Grima House 650 Buyout

Broussard's is one of the four classic Creole New Orleans restaurants known as the Grand Dames. The ninety-eight-year-old restaurant includes three interior dining rooms, the Empire Bar and an elegant courtyard. Broussard's menu features exotic dishes with a blend of French and Creole influences.

Napoleon Room

110 Seated
150 Reception
(120 seated with Chiavari Chairs)

The largest of three rooms, located off of the grand foyer, the Napoleon room offers a classic New Orleans dining experience. The ornate chandeliers and detailed molding contribute to the elegance of the space.

Magnolia Room

60 Seated
50 Reception

As the former horse stables for the Hermann-Grima House, the historical charm of the Magnolia room is immediately evident. With the original exposed brick, wooden beams, and grand windows overlooking the courtyard, the Magnolia room is pleasantly unique.

Josephine Room

40 Seated
30 Reception

As the smallest of three dining rooms, the Josephine room offers guests an intimate experience, with a grand feel. The green accents, bird-print wallpaper and wood flooring evokes the courtyard outside.

100 Reception (Buyout Only)

Located down the carriageway of the Prince Conti Hotel, Bombay Club has the atmosphere of an upscale British club. It is both elegant and sophisticated and very popular with locals. The club features a quasi-British, Cajun inspired menu, and the bar is known for its wide selection of specialty cocktails and martinis.

Live jazz music is featured nightly.

Kingfish

kitchen & cocktails

The Ramos Room 40 Seated

Exposed brick and tin walls offer a throwback to the days of Huey P. Long, the former governor of Louisiana, who was nicknamed the Kingfish. Two sets of French Doors opening to Chartres Street, not only enhance the New Orleans charm of the room with natural light, day or night, but also offers guests a private entrance into the space. The menu highlights a modern spin on classic Louisiana dishes and a library of specialty cocktails that are handmade by skilled mixologists.

Kingfish can accommodate a maximum of 40 guests for a full-service seated dinner.

Marché

260 Seated / 300 Reception

Marché is located in the French Market of New Orleans and has sweeping views of both the majestic Mississippi River, the charming French Quarter, and the downtown New Orleans skyline. The building is part of a collection of historically significant buildings that make up the area known as the French Market and dates back to the 1850's.

Careful restoration was executed at Marché to bring out all of the old French Quarter charms for which the Vieux Carre is known. Hand applied old world venetian plaster was added to the venue, and once closed, and unused balconies were restored to offer all guests dramatic views of both the French Quarter and the riverfront.

SINCE 1902
Ernst
CAFE
• NEW ORLEANS •

Lafayette Room - 150 Reception

Ernst Café has provided excellent service and hospitality from its key location in the historic Warehouse District for over 106 years and has evolved into a premier provider for special events.

The Lafayette Room is an open floorplan with original exposed brick walls, floor to ceiling windows, and Bevolo gas lanterns for the perfect New Orleans feel. The room opens to a spacious wrap around balcony overlooking Fulton Street Square. Located blocks from the Ernst N. Morial Convention Center and a short walk from the French Quarter and most downtown area hotels.

250 Reception Buyout

Conveniently located in the heart of the warehouse district, steps away from the convention center and minutes from the French Quarter, Tomas is an outstanding venue to host your next occasion. The exposed brick walls and original wooden beams, along with soaring ceilings, give guests a piece of history and charm. Tomas can accommodate parties from 20 to 200. With three different and unique rooms, this venue gives guests the opportunity to choose the best room or rooms to suit their needs. Our award-winning food and service will be sure to impress your guests in an elegant and inviting atmosphere.

Tommy's CUISINE

Chandelier Room

40 Seated

The largest of the private dining rooms at Tommy's Cuisine, the Chandelier Room was designed around an antique crystal chandelier, which creates an elegant and inviting atmosphere.

---

Orleans Room

24 Seated

The Orleans Room was designed as a salute to New Orleans, with historical pictures draping the walls. Exposed wooden beams and ambient lighting creates an intimate and sophisticated dining experience.

---

Julia Room

32 Seated

The Julia room has exposed brick walls and New Orleans style carriage lighting, with arched windows allowing for natural light to filter into the room.

---

Carnival Room

15 Seated

The smallest of the dining rooms at Tommy's Cuisine, the Carnival Room is intended to showcase the history of Mardi Gras, shown through an original painting of the founding days of carnival.

